WHISKERS ADVENTURE

THIRD GRADE

SHERIDAN SCHOOL

One day, Jenny came home from the park. She looked for Whiskers, but she couldn't find him! Whiskers was Jenny and Jason's new cat. She knew he wouldn't know his way around yet but she didn't think he would walk out the door! Then, she heard the back door slam. She heard Jason come in.

He sounded so happy. She wondered why? When he came into the kitchen, Jenny gave him a look, as though to say, "Why are you, so happy?" Then he gave her a look, as though to say, "Why are you, so sad?" Just then they heard another slam of the door. It was dad. He hummed as he came into the kitchen. Then, they all heard a bark from the dog owned by the people who live next door. Jenny turned stiff.

She didn't like that sound because she was thinking, "What if Foo-Foo has Whiskers!" The same thought went through Jason's mind. Then, they heard the front door open, then close again. It was mom. They had to explain this to their parents. Meanwhile, Whiskers is walking around the neighborhood. He looked very confused. Some people came walking by and said, "That poor kitty." Then he came to Melissa's house.

MEOW!!!

Melissa is a bully in Jenny's classroom. None of the kids at school like her. Only the dumb people like her. Just then a jogger came jogging up. MEOWWWW! He stepped on Whiskers tail! Then out of no where came... I bet you can guess, you know who, nobody but MELISSAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA! She stepped on Whiskers tail and smashed him on the sidewalk.

Then, Jenny came running down the sidewalk with a police officer. Melissa ran inside her house mumbling to herself, "Jenny always gets her way, but I never get it my way." The police officer saw her and said, "Young lady come here." She didn't listen. He said again, "COME HERE NOW!" She knew she had to obey the police officer, even if she didn't want to. Very slowly she walked to where the officer was.

He said, "did you do this?"
She said, very slowly, "yes
I did." The officer told her, "please say your sorry." She said, "I'm sorry I did that to your cat." The officer said that this time he wouldn't do anything to her, but next time she might get it.
Jenny and the officer
walked back to Jenny's house and everyone was glad to have Whiskers back.
Whisker was very, very,
very glad to be home.

They celebrated by having a party for Whiskers. He liked that a lot! The next day, everyone was the same except Whiskers. He was very, very, very, very, very wild. I mean he was wild. He was probably the wildest cat you've ever seen in your whole LIFE! He was so wild. He was jumping all over the place tearing his scratching post to shreds. Jenny and Jason were so surprised that they just stared at him in wonder.

Like their mind had taken a vacation to HOLLYWOOD! All of a sudden, they heard a knocking noise on the door. KNOCK, KNOCK, KNOCK, KNOCK. Jenny answered the door. There stood MELISSA! Jenny said in a shaky voice, "hi Melissa." Melissa said, in a very loud voice, "HI JENNY CARRUTHERS." Jenny was so surprised that she said, "Would you like to come in?"

Melissa said, "sure!" Then she came into to the living room and Jason gasped when he saw Jenny being so nice to Melissa! He said, "what in the world are you doing Jenny!" She said, "I'm going to be Melissa's friend now." Jason said, "Why are doing that Jenny." "I'm doing this because I want to." Answered Jenny. Jason also became Melissa's friend too! They all lived happy from that day on.
